OFFICIAL PAPER OF DULUTH.

"Anything to beat Washburn," is the latest platform constructed by the News.

The News is getting lots of endorsement from the Democratic press upon its terrier position. It now gleefully quotes Democratic editorials on that subject.

Those who acted upon the suggestion of O. A. Pillsbury's famous bull story and themselves out of pocket. The market took a decided tumble after it had been made public.

The next Minnesota legislature will contain twenty-seven Scandinavians, ten in the senate and seventeen in the house. All of these are Republicans except one, Peter Nelson, of Red Wing. These figures are correct, statements of other papers to the contrary notwithstanding.

Wisconsin has three prominent candidates for obnoxious positions not including Senator Spooner who declares that he does not wish to be considered as a cabinet aspirant in any sense. They are Gov. Rusk and Gen. Fairchild for secretary of war, and Henry O. Payne for postmaster general.

The press has not yet fully determined upon the future of Grover Cleveland. The majority returned for him from Texas would indicate that the Lone Star state would give him a royal welcome if he decides to make his future abiding place within its borders.

Since Ignatius Donnelly was beaten for the legislature, his aspirations for becoming speaker of the house and then United States senator have been shattered. Now his friends think he ought to be placed on the railroad and warehouse commission. In fact they have entered him, as the jockies would put it, for the consolation stakes.

A. de Lacy Wood, the well-known Two Harbors editor becomes enthusiastic over the election returns from Beaver Bay. Fourteen votes were cast and every one of them went for A. de Lacy Wood for judge of probate. The gleeful editor does not state how the rest of the county went and an anxious public is left in doubt as to whether he was elected or defeated.

The anarchists in Chicago are showing a pernicious activity which ought to be discouraged by the authorities before it breaks out in another Haymarket riot. The lesson taught by the Haymarket riot is the lesson of the Haymarket riot. The lesson taught by the Haymarket riot is the lesson of the Haymarket riot. The lesson taught by the Haymarket riot is the lesson of the Haymarket riot.

Senator Quay announces that the Republican majority in the next house of representatives is certainly five and possibly nine, and that the Republicans do not propose to be defeated out of the fruits of victory by Democratic conspiracy or otherwise. If there is anything more than windy threats in the obstructive policy outlined by a few debased Democratic leaders, they may as well be warned in time of the consequences. The people are in no humor to be trifled with. They have spoken their will at the polls, and the verdict must stand.

The report of the third assistant postmaster-general for the past fiscal year gives what is said to be the first official record of the number of letters, postal cards and packages carried in the domestic mails of this country. The aggregate number for the year was 3,578,000,000, or an average of about sixty pieces of mail per capita; and of this aggregate, which exceeds that of any other country in the world, the number of parcels of merchandise was equal to the number of postal cards; about one-third as great as the number of newspapers and periodicals, and about one-fifth as great as the number of letters.

The Democratic clerk at Alton, Ill., who is charged with promoting election frauds by a small majority was returned against "Uncle Jehu" Baker for congress was Friday indicted by the grand jury for fraudulently issuing newspaper papers, and it is likely to go hard with him. An investigation developed that he has been in the habit of issuing fraudulent "first and second papers" upon the same day, to his own party, and that there was absolutely no record kept for the past 12 years of any newspaper papers issued from that office, which has during the entire period been in the charge of a Democratic clerk. There seems to have been a party conspiracy in the present case, and rather than go to the penitentiary the indicted clerk will turn state's evidence against the Democratic managers. And "Uncle Jehu" Baker will keep his seat in congress.

Congressman Ford, of Michigan, who was defeated for a re-election, is chairman of the congressional committee, which has been investigating the subject of pauper immigration. He has his own plan which he believes will answer every purpose. His idea provides for the appointment of consular inspectors to every foreign land that sends large numbers of immigrants to this country, and these inspectors will be attached to the American consular and minister's services in the several countries. Those who desire to come to this country shall file applications, giving age, birth place, occupation, purpose, pedigree and other important or material points, 30, 60, or 90 days, as may be decided upon, before taking passage, and during that time the inspectors shall investigate the past lives and records of the applicants, and then set according to

A LIFE SAVED.

Geo. Miller a Native of Michigan Escapes Death.

When the last lowering place of Michigan was telling their blissful tales to one another in an apparently silent tone in the early days of the late rebellion little did the present generation imagine what changes a few years would make. What today is the most populous portion of Michigan, was then a dense pine forest.

Back in the days of '61 when every young man was required to bear the blunt of battle in the Sunny South for his country, the process of clearing up this vast forest was for a time postponed, as nearly every able bodied man exposed his naked breast to the leader. The boys in blue to the best of their ability were during these trying times that Geo. Miller first saw the light of day. He was born September 30, 1861, in Allegan county, Mich. He was a bright young boy and attended the public schools of his native town until he received a liberal education such as the schools of those early days afforded. At the age of twelve he started to learn engineering, and has followed that occupation since coming to Duluth in 1880. He entered the employ of the Ohio Coal Company, as engineer, and is with them yet.

In conversation with Mr. Miller last week, he told the reporter that he had enjoyed good health up to two or three years ago, since which time he has been a great sufferer with renal disease, and at times he had doctor and spent over $500 in the vain endeavor to get relief, but no avail. Early this summer he called on Dr. Cosman of this city. After careful examination the doctor told him he was suffering with chronic ulcers in and about the kidneys, and that he went under his treatment at once, and today is as well as well.

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

A second division to Hunter's Grassy Point addition was recorded today with the register of deeds.

Dominick McCreary and Paddy McDonauld have signed articles for a hard glove fight to take place soon at Duluth for large stakes.

Fourteen real estate transfers were filed yesterday, with a total consideration of $107,150, the largest single day's business for a long time.

Another bank will be established in Duluth soon. It will probably be organized under state laws and will probably be backed by good men.

Seals for the approaching engagement of the Boston Ideal have been sold rapidly and there is no doubt of a large audience at all her performances.

The rapidly rising walls of the new Imperial mill attract great attention both from uptown and from incoming passengers on the various railways.

The city evidently intends to have what it pays for in the matter of gas and water supply, and their action last night will be commended by all citizens.

A grand ball will be given by Society Seven at their hall in Cleveland block Thursday evening, November 22nd. Tickets 50 cents per couple. Good music in attendance. Everybody invited to attend.

The building boom still continues, and a large number of houses are going up all over the city. At West Duluth one company is intending to put up 100 comfortable dwellings.

Half a dozen or more cargoes are yet to be shipped from Two Harbors, several of the vessels to take loads being yet on the way up the lakes. The North Wind and E. M. Deek are loading today.

All ore that can be shipped out this season is now in the docks at Two Harbors, and ore shipments have been suspended for the season. The attention of the company will now be directed solely to the increasing of its stock pile at the mines.

The death rate for 1888, notwithstanding the talk regarding the unhealthy condition of the city, has so far been less than that of 1887. In this death rate are included fatal cases of fever and other illness brought to the Duluth hospitals from surrounding towns.

Over 400 lumbermen were disposed of by the Omaha road yesterday, between Duluth and Chippewa river. Outgoing trains on all roads are filled with men going into the woods, the recent cold snap having started a lively boom in that direction. Thousands of men will be employed in the woods near this city this winter.

At the gas well operations have been suspended for the winter and the well covered up. An analysis is being made of the water discovered at a depth of 1275 feet some two months ago, and if this proves the water to be as the company believe it, attempts will be made to introduce it to general sale. It is mildly but thoroughly laxative and has a most pleasant effect on the stomach.

It is stated on good authority that one of the first government improvements to be made here in the spring is to be the establishment of a time ball, in connection with the weather service. The ball will be located at the signal office, and will be dropped precisely at 12 noon, by an electric arrangement connected with the national observatory. It will be put in primarily for the convenience of mariners but will be a great convenience to the general public. The signal service headquarters will probably be moved by that time to a building better situated to its needs.

Miss Carrie Estee, the well known temperance worker, spoke at the Methodist church last night. A large audience was present and Miss Estee was introduced by Dr. Dunn. She spoke for an hour most entertainingly and rapidly, chiefly on the education of children in temperance matters and the great importance of seeing to it that this educational influence was not neglected. Miss Estee was not a prohibitionist, she does not believe in the settlement of this question by politics, but by education, and moral suasion and gradual eliminating of the appetite for drink. There were several musical numbers given during the evening. Miss Estee left today for Two Harbors where she speaks this evening.

A Collection of Pens.

A man in Denver, Colo., named Lyon, got an idea some years ago that it would be a fine thing to collect all the odd shaped pens he could find. So he started in, and today he has a lot comprising over seven hundred different varieties. About twelve different metals are represented in the collection.

Then there are a number of wooden pens and lots of odd quills. The collection embraces specimens from England, Ireland, Scotland, Germany and other European countries, besides America and Canada. There are pens pointed fine enough to make lines of microscopic delicacy and others intended for men who use the first personal pronoun a great deal in their correspondence. Some are in shape like shovels, others resemble a section of stovepipe and others are delicate and distinctive.—Chicago Herald.

The Women of Utah.

The women of Utah comprise two good classes. The poorer ones are rustlers from good rustling parents. They can irrigate a farm, mow hay and do almost anything in the field that a man can do. The other class can turn out as much beauty, good breeding and culture as Boston, although on a small scale and of a breezy, western character. In Salt Lake streets, as well as those of Logan and Ogden, can be seen any day beautiful women who need no artificial means to give their faces a delightfully healthy color. They dress, as a rule, neatly, not extravagantly, and behave with severe propriety while in public.—Albany Express.

That Was Quite Different.

When a young man fainted away in the corridor of the postoffice the other day a crowd quickly gathered of course, and of course a dozen people had suggestions to make.

"Is he dead?" demanded a portly citizen as he pushed his way into the circle.

"Dead as a nail," answered another.

"No he isn't," exclaimed a third. "I've seen a dozen men in such fits."

"But this is different, probably," persisted the second. "This chap has got two watch-chains on. They never get over anything worse than the colic."—Detroit Free Press.

Not Likely to Be Forgotten.

The husband stood at the door, hat in hand, and spoke with a tinge of impatience in his tone.

"I am waiting, Maria," he said, for my customary good-by kiss."

"I kissed you only a moment ago, John," replied the wife.

"Why, so you did, my love," said John, putting on his hat, "so you did."

"If I smoked so nasty a pipe as you do," said Maria, "you would have no difficulty in remembering my kisses."—Chicago Tribune.

Value of Sunflower Seed.

Owing to the diversified and recently developed uses of sunflower seed it is yearly growing in commercial value. Its wholesomeness as an admixture to chicken food is undisputed, and much of it finds a market for that purpose. It is used by the veterinary profession in a medicinal or corrective way in the treatment of horses. The extraction of a valuable oil from it is a looked for result. With its reputation as a preventive of malarial its growth is becoming widespread, especially at the west.—New York Tribune.

THE TENTH VICTIM

The Whitechapel Murderer Makes an Unsuccessful Effort to Murder
Another Prostitute.

THE FIEND IS FRIGHTENED AWAY

Before Accomplishing His Design--The Woman can Identify Her
Assailant.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Great excitement was occasioned this morning when it was reported that another woman had been murdered and mutilated in Whitechapel. The police immediately formed a cordon around the premises. An enormous crowd rushed to the vicinity in which the crime was said to have been committed, where it was learned that another murder had been attempted upon a low woman by a man who had accompanied her to her lodging, but that in this instance his work had been frustrated. According to the woman's story, the man had seized her and struck her once in the throat with a knife. She struggled desperately, and succeeded in freeing herself from the man's grasp, and had screamed for help. Her cries had alarmed the man, and he fled without attempting any further violence. Some of the neighbors who had heard the woman's screams followed the murderer about three hundred yards when he disappeared. The woman says she is fully able to recognize the man and gave a description of him to the police. The police are hopeful of soon capturing him.

NOT THE SAME MAN.
LONDON, Nov. 21.—After an investigation of the fact the police are of the opinion that the attempted murder in Whitechapel this morning was not the work of the man who committed the atrocious murders in that vicinity recently. No arrest has been made. Excitement among the people in that locality is very great.

CASE OF CONVULSIONS.

An Entire Family Poisoned in a Mysterious Manner.
WATERLOO, Ohio, Nov. 21.—A mysterious case of poisoning is in the family of Samuel Patterson, mayor of Piquette. His only children visited their grandmother shortly after dinner and were seized with convulsions. Their mother was sent for and fell in convulsions on her way. Mr. Patterson while going for a physician also fell in convulsions. The mother and children have recovered but Mr. Patterson is still in a dangerous condition.

COLD FOR CANUCKS.

A Severe November Storm, Followed by an Extremely Cold Wave.
MONTREAL, Can., Nov. 21.—Yesterday was the coldest November day in this part of Canada for many years, and the thermometer is falling still lower. The cold wave struck here Monday night, following close upon a blinding storm of snow and sleet. At daylight the temperature was at zero in this city, and degrees below across the St. Lawrence at St. Lambert.

TWO SWING.

A Pair of Negro Murderers Hanged in Wichita, Kansas.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 21.—Jake and Joe Talbot, (colored), were executed this morning in the county jail in the presence of a few people by federal authorities. The crime for which they were executed was the killing of Cass and Goody Kuntz, near the Sea and Fox agency in Aug. 1885.

GOULD WANTS HIM.
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—There is a good deal of speculation relative to the presence in town of J. W. Nudgey, chairman of the Western Freight association who arrived from Chicago yesterday afternoon.

WAR VETERANS.
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov.—The annual convention of the state association of the prisoners of war opened here today with an attendance of over one hundred. General Payer, of Mount Vernon, president of the organization presided. Resolutions will be presented for consideration under the next congress to take up the question of granting liberal pensions to ex-prisoners of war.

A Petroleum Explosion.
LONDON, Nov. 21.—An explosion occurred at Bristol this morning on board the schooner United, which was laden with 210 barrels of petroleum. The vessel was wrecked and three men who were at work on board were killed.

A Big Scheme.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 21.—General McCook, of Fort Leavenworth, is considering a gigantic scheme for the improvement of the Missouri river for the fort, and the consequent salvage of thousands of acres of bottom land lying opposite Leavenworth.

A Run on the Bank.
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Home Savings bank, of this city, suspended this morning. The reason assigned for the failure by the board of directors is that reports recently circulated affecting its credit produced a run on the bank.

Again Houlanger.
PARIS, Nov. 21.—Gen. Boulanger attended a performance at the Renaissance theater last night. The audience recognized him and gave him an ovation. There was disorder and the police made several arrests.

Anti-Saloon Republicans.
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The national executive committee of the anti-saloon Republicans is in session here today, with closed doors discussing the future policy of the organization.

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

The new sidewalk along the avenue side the opera house is being laid rapidly. Twelve realty transfers were filed yesterday, the total consideration being $10,267. The city clerk advertised for signatures to the petition for extending First street an assessment three years.

The night schools are proving an unexpected success, the attendance being much larger than last year.

Saw mill men are disgusted because of their early shut down. The present week has been fine for running mills.

A little daughter of J. J. Trunk, living on Fifth avenue west, was severely injured last night by a fall from an outside stair way.

A sophomore entertainment was given last night by that class in the high school. A short but pleasant program was carried through.

There were eight drunks before the august person of Judge Jacques this afternoon. The court will increase the street gang for a time.

Signal officer Fallon states that the temperature was warmer than here and that the indications are for considerable of the present weather.

The Duluth Electric company state that they have a 100 horse power high speed engine coming soon, and they expect to be able to start up their plant next week, though this is not certain.

Several vessels chartered with coal for the Ohio Coast. The company have not yet left lower lake ports and will not be there until next week. The season of navigation will be one of the latest known.

A grand ball will be given by Society Sava at their hall in Cleveland block Thursday evening November 22nd. Tickets 50 cents per couple. Good music in attendance. Everybody invited to attend.

At the new West End school, the foundations are nearly in place, and the architect is drawing plans for the exterior. The building will be much like the new Franklin, both in shape, appearance, and arrangement.

The predictions of Weather Prophet Kellogg, printed in the HERALD yesterday are now being fulfilled. The gloomy weather of the fall still continues, and will probably for several days to come. Contrary to the predictions of the weather, the total shipments of ore for the year by water will foot up to about 450,000 gross tons.

Some trouble has been experienced in loading the last few cargoes of Chandler mine at Two Harbors. This soft ice freezes easily, and is proving very hard to get out of the pockets after it freezes in. Steam is found to be the only way of thawing the masses of ore.

Tickets for the charity ball of the Ladies' Relief are now on sale, and are selling rapidly. It is to be hoped that no one to whom the ladies appeal will refuse to purchase for the cause of a most worthy cause, and they are endeavoring to make it a fine affair.

The fine steamship, P. W. Wheeler, Capt. Ivers, came up from Buffalo in three days, leaving there on Monday morning. This is claimed to be the fastest time on record between the two ports. The Wheeler had a cargo of slightly over 2,000 tons of coal.

Two Duluth boys while skating on the ice on the lake, broke through and would have been drowned but for the timely assistance of contractors. The ice is not strong enough yet for skaters except in some places.

Contractor Emery, who has the tremendous rock cut on First street and Fifth avenue, expects to get his work completed about March 1st. He has a large force of men at work and will keep nearly 100 all winter. Already nearly half of the 38,000 yards of rock in the cut has been taken out.

In one feature at least Duluth could profit from the Chicago fire. That city is now advertising for bids for plowing and cleaning sidewalks during the winter. Duluth should enforce the cleaning ordinance in some way and a good time to attempt it is now, before any of the snow comes.

Vast quantities of kerosene oil in cans are being sent here, for use on the ship. Nearly twenty cans daily go to Oregon, and the dock is being cleared as fast as possible. Oil receipts for the year are about over.

Duluth is sending numbers of laborers to the South where McArthur Bros. building the new water power canal for the municipality. There will also be a large call for laborers there from the new Canadian ship canal on which work will go forward this winter.

There is a good field for a little police activity on Fourth street near First avenue, where three-fourths of the entire width of the street is blocked by broken rock thrown there loosely for the foundation of a building going up near by. Not only is the street obstructed but no signals or lights are kept in position during the night.

Nearly all the outside work of the new Franklin school on Seventh street is completed, and the contractors pushing the interior. While the contract called for the completion of the structure on November 7th, it is not now possible that it will be able to accommodate any number of scholars before next March. When completed, it will be a model school, both outside and in, and will compare favorably with any in the city.

BASE BALL CONVENTION IN SESSION

Questions of Interest to Ball People
Settled--The Pennant Officially Awarded.

New York, Nov. 21.—The base ball convention formally convened this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel. The work of the joint committee which met yesterday was approved without opposition except the question of high and low ball, which the western men have not taken kindly to. It is now conceded with certainty that Cleveland will succeed the Detroit club in the league. A topic which has given New York men a great deal of concern is Short Story Ward's release. Manager Day says Ward will be given to the highest bidding club. Manager Hewitt, of the Washingtons is very anxious to secure Ward's services for 1889, but thinks that the club with Boston in the efforts of that club to secure Ward. The directors today awarded the championship pennant to New York and verified the percentage of ball men individually are more than enthusiastic over the change made in general, and the season of 1889 will be inaugurated with many improvements.

THE GERMAN EXPRESS.

She Proposes to Invest Her Wealth in English Property.
LONDON, Nov. 21.—This is the forty-eighth birthday of the Empress Frederick of Germany but in consequence of the death of the Emperor there will be no observance of the event, despite the presence of the Empress on her mother's soil. It is whispered in court circles that one of the objects of her present visit is to invest in English property a considerable portion of the private fortune which came to her upon the death of her royal husband. This the Empress Frederick will do if he will be left to it unconditionally, and she with the simple request that before her own death she should be permitted to invest among her younger children.

AFTER THE BIG FOUR.

The Senate Investigating Committee Holds Its Second Day's Session.
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.—The second day's session of the Senate Cattle Investigating committee opened with a large attendance, including over one hundred butchers who have been subpoenaed to give testimony. Senator Vest presided. The evidence which it is proposed to offer the committee will tend to prove conclusively that the Big Four has a monopoly of the beef trade, that through it the lesser butchers are being crowded to the wall, that the Big Four have an understanding with the railroads, by which they virtually control rates to the injury of the general public, that they have depreciated the value of range cattle in order to keep up the price needed looking to the inspection of all cattle on the hoof, in order that it shall be the duty of the Big Four to ship diseased cattle from Chicago to other cities.

WANT A LOCATION.

A NEW YORK MANUFACTURING COMPANY LOOKING FOR A WESTERN LOCATION.
A letter has been received by the HERALD from the Wood Mosaic Floor company, of New York City, stating that the company desires to move its works and intimating that if Duluth is anxious it may secure the works and a controlling interest in the business. This floor is a staple article having been on the market for the past eight or ten years and is well known throughout the east and a portion of the west. The floor is in use in many places and is acknowledged to be a fine thing. The company proposing to come west own patents covering the various methods of making the wood mosaic floor, the fitting with lead joints and the use of specially prepared kiln dried squares, being among the chief patents. The manufacture and sale of this floor is a business in a locality near the natural hard woods used than where now situated. The chief woods used being ash, maple and oak, of which there is great abundance near Duluth it would seem as if such an institution would do remarkably well here. A general business in other hard wood flooring etc, is also done by this concern. It would certainly pay Duluth's chamber of commerce to carefully look this matter up.

DEATHS' APPROACH

George S. Knight, the Actor, Reported in a Dying Condition at His Home.

A REMARKABLY SUCCESSFUL CAREER.

Dion Boucicault Suffering from an Illness from Which He Can not Recover.

New York, Nov. 22.—Geo. S. Knight, the actor, is very ill at his home in Orange. He is suffering with pneumonia, apparently from the same cause which resulted in the death of John McCullough, the rapidly rising actor, who died last night. Knight's real name is George Sloan. He started on the stage as a variety actor. About ten years ago he married Miss Sophie Worrell, of the famous Worrell sisters. The marriage estranged Miss Worrell from her relatives for the time being, but finally upon the birth of her first child her relatives became reconciled, and have ever since been good friends. Mrs. Knight says the cause of her husband's illness was the failure of his play, "Baron Rudolph," upon which he based his hopes of future greatness.

A SWELL WEDDING.

Marriage of Two Prominent Young People in Chicago—Distinguished Guests. Chicago, Nov. 22.—A large number of guests from New York and other cities, including Col. F. D. Grant, Daniel Burnham, Philadelphia, and A. R. Wood, are in the city for the purpose of attending the wedding of Miss Eliza M. Jones, daughter of the Hon. J. Russell Jones, who was President of the Senate in 1869, and Henry H. Jones, Jr., a son of the well known Chicago capitalist, who has acquired international fame as the father of the American beauties who are now Mrs. F. D. Grant and Mrs. Potter Palmer. By this marriage the friendship which has always existed between the Joneses and the Joneses, who are still more closely connected, and the two families linked in the bonds of relationship. The wedding takes place at seven o'clock at the mansion of the bride's parents, on Michigan avenue, and the invitations have been confined to the members of the three families directly interested, and the guests from other cities. A large number of invitations have been issued, however, for the reception, which follows the ceremony.

THERE IS LITTLE HARMONY.

Englishmen in Chicago Denounce the Irish Home Rule as a Par with Anarchists. Chicago, Nov. 22.—The action of the British Americans in this city in holding a mass meeting to denounce the proposed Allen Larkin and O'Brien memorial meeting and in closing the Irish Home Rule as a par with anarchists, has aroused considerable indignation in Irish circles in this city and is hardly calculated to bring about that harmony of feeling between the British and the Irish associations toward which some people have been working. Prominent Irishmen are very bitter in their denunciations of the action in question and more especially at the adoption of the resolution calling on all American citizens to stamp out fanatical anarchists and dynamiters. There are rumors that the British Americans will attempt to pack the memorial meeting to-morrow night in which case there will be trouble.

AMERICAN EVICTIONS.

Irish Dramas Enacted in a Free American State. MASON CITY, Ia., Nov. 22.—One hundred more writs of ejectment were served on settlers on the Des Moines river lands yesterday. Settlers were driven out of their homes, furniture piled up in the road and doors and windows barred against them. The Land company make no compromise, and when settlers make overtures to buy their land, as many of them are doing, they are charged from $10 to $25 per acre. Trouble has thus far been avoided, but settlers around Lehigh have formed a union, with R. S. Boynton as their president. It is expected this union will issue a circular outlining their grievances and making known their intentions.

BOUCICAULT IN DANGER.

The Famous Playwright Believed to be Suffering from His Last Illness. New York, Nov. 22.—It has been known for a few days that Dion Boucicault was very ill but until yesterday it was not believed, apparently, that he was really in a dangerous condition. However the news is confirmed at Madison Square Theatre that it was not likely that he would live long. His trouble is probably an attack of acute rheumatic gout mingled with dyspepsia, he having suffered from both troubles for years. In the present instance gout is expected to reach the heart the last time. Mr. Boucicault was seen in public on the occasion of the first performance of "Sweet Lavender," at the Lyceum Theatre. This was Tuesday night a week ago. He then appeared to be quite feeble.

SOME ROBBERIES.

At the municipal court this morning, Thomas Wallace, arrested last night for stealing a pair of blankets from M. S. Burrows & Co., was committed for petit larceny. John Curran, James Ryan and Charles Barrett, who were arrested this morning for stealing a $35 overcoat from Lewis Bros., were committed to stand trial in default of bail of $75 each. E. A. Phillips, accused of stealing a watch, waived examination, and was committed in default of $300 bail to await the action of the district court at its January term. There were also three drunks at court, two of whom will all in be kept in street clean, while the third paid his fine.

BASE BALL CONVENTION IN SESSION

Questions of Interest to Ball People Settled—The Pennant Officially Awarded.

New York, Nov. 21.—The base ball convention formally convened this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel. The work of the joint committees which met yesterday was approved without opposition except the question of high and low ball, which the western men have not taken kindly to. It is now conceded with certainty, that Cleveland will succeed the Detroit club in the league. A topic which has given New York men a great deal of concern is Short Stop Ward's release. Manager Day says Ward will be given to the highest bidding club. Manager Hewitt, of the Washingtons, is very anxious to secure Ward's services for 1889, but thinks that he cannot compete with Boston in the efforts of that club to secure Ward. The directors today awarded the championship pennant to New York and verified the percentage of various clubs for the past season. Base ball men individually are more than enthusiastic over the changes made in general, and the season of 1889 will be inaugurated with many improvements.

It is desirable of leaving its present quarters to obtain room to expand and to do a larger business in a locality nearer the natural hard woods used than where now situated. The chief woods used being ash, maple and oak, of which there is great abundance near Duluth it would seem as if such an institution would do remarkably well here. LOUISVILLE, Nov. 20.—James Smiley, Malvine Johnson, Julia Rutledge, Beatrice Park, Eliza with Reed, Robert Hudson and Henry Worley were arrested near Somerset yesterday charged with the murder of Levi Troxell, an old farmer, of their neighborhood, who disappeared November 8. Troxell's son claims to be able to prove a conspiracy between the persons arrested in which they assassinated Troxell.

There is a good field for a little police activity on Fourth street near First avenue west, where three-fourths of the entire width of the street is blocked by broken rock thrown there loosely for the foundation of a building going up near by. Not only is the street obstructed but no signals or lights are kept in position during the night.

Nearly all the outside work of the new Franklin school on Seventh street is completed, and the contractors are pushing the interior. While the contract called for the completion of the structure on November 1st, it is not now possible that it will be able to accommodate any number of scholars before next March. But when completed, it will be a model school, both outside and in, and will compare favorably with any in the west.

The take taking business still continues brisk and the H. H. company's books are in submission for some time to come. At low Bayville through the majority of the business have returned to Duluth there is still enough to make good business.

The lake was slightly rough last night and this morning, not enough to bother vessels at all, and not so rough as several times before this year. The Ojibwa arrived early this morning from Port Arthur. The highest velocity of the wind was only 25 miles per hour, not enough to risk any sea sickness.

CONSISTING OF

IRISH MARTYRS.

Their Memory Being Honored by Irish Societies Throughout the United States.

DEED FOR WHICH THEY WERE HANGED

A Daring and Successful Effort to Free Two of Their Companions From Bondage.

MINNAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In view of the fact that throughout the United States the anniversary of the death of the Manchester "martyrs" will today be observed by the Irish element on a more general scale than ever before, that comparisons have been drawn between these celebrations and those of the anarchists in observing the anniversary of the death of Spies, Parsons and their colleagues, and that the British Americans of this and other cities have protested against the celebrations in question being permitted by the municipal authorities, a resume of the circumstances surrounding the deaths of Allen, Larkin and O'Brien is published here today. In 1866 and '67 the Fenian movement, which had for years been active in Ireland, was extended into England. The authorities were aware of the fact, but seemed powerless to suppress it. Then spies were employed and extreme measures decided upon. Early in November, 1867 two men named Dacey and Kelly were arrested in Manchester on the charge of being identified with a Fenian organization. Allen, Larkin and O'Brien, who were arrested in London, were taken to the same place and decided to rescue them. They were carried off their plan while the three men were taken to court in the iron van, with sergeant Brett as guard. The van was stopped by an immense crowd, and a revolver was poured into the lock until it was shattered and the door flew open on its hinges and the prisoners escaped. Then they fled and when reinforcements arrived Sergeant Brett, who had been inside the van with the prisoners, was found lying a pool of blood on the floor. Two of the bullets intended for the lock had gone through his brain. Allen, Larkin and O'Brien were arrested and the evidence proved conclusively that they had been the ring leaders in the attack. They were indicted for the murder of Sergeant Brett, convicted after a protracted and impartial trial and sentenced to death. The sentence was carried into effect on November 23, 1867. Dacey and Kelly made their way to the United States. The former died some years ago and the whereabouts of Kelly have not been known for at least a decade.

Myers Bros. sold twenty lots in West Duluth last Saturday.

HICKMEYER'S HIT.

PROFESSOR HICKMEYER'S THEORETICAL SYSTEM FAILS TO PUT IN AN APPEARANCE.

The so-called "Professor" Hickmeyer's forty-eight hours of grace have come and gone, and the threatened upheaval of the great lakes has not yet taken place. Fort Scott's noted weather prognosticator Tuesday morning "gave it out" that within forty-eight hours a most disastrous and terrible gale and blizzard will occur on the great lakes, and now twenty-four hours more have passed, and no storm. The average mariner, conscious only of the fallibility of the weatherwise gentlemen, has long since ceased to have any faith in their forecasts. He would bank on the reliability of the county jail against the professional meteorologist, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred. He has been taught by experience that the gentleman who sits in a revolving chair and draws deductions from wind gauges and barometers, rain gauges and thermometers, at a given station per deduction, as a general rule is not half as reliable as a groundhog or as true as a gold-mined moon. It is about time that these self-styled professors of meteorology were set on by the newspapers of the country, and their predictions left unprinted. When printed they simply serve to fill space that might better be occupied by patent medicine ads and to cause an occasional weak-minded individual.

A HICKLEY MURDER.

AN EX-JUSTICE SHOT TO KILL, AN ENEMY OF THE BARREN, AND THE VICTIM.

Yesterday evening an explosion of the peace and county surveyor of Pine county, shot and instantly killed L. K. Irvin, engineer in the Eastern Minnesota, at Hinckley. The men were engaged in a quarrel, and finally, after much hard language, Scott pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired. The ball entered a vital part, and his victim dropped, dying in a few moments. Scott was at once arrested, and early in the evening was in the hands of the county sheriff. At one time there were fears of a lynching. Irvin was very popular with the railroad men, a large number of whom were on the ground witnesses to the assault, and the question of hanging Scott to a telegraph pole was seriously considered, steps even being taken to carry such a proceeding into execution. The sheriff guarded his prisoner well, and him out of the way of the crowd.

LOG CHIPS.

At his lumber camp on the Nemadji river F. R. Webber has about 1,500,000 feet of log skidded and ready to haul. A second camp is being put in on Black River. About 6,000,000 feet will be Mr. Webber's cut of the winter at the two camps. Seventy-five men are now employed at both.

The C. S. Murray & Co's mill has cut during the season just past 13,000,000 feet of lumber, 3,000,000 shingles and 4,000,000 lath. It now has on hand 6,000,000 feet of lumber, 8,000,000 shingles and 4,000,000 lath. The entire cut has been for L. M. Stocking of Eau Claire and the Olean Land Company and the lumber on hand is about equally divided between these two companies.

John Campbell is cutting out 1,700,000 feet of logs on the Nemadji river. He will sell a part to Duncan, Brower & Co. and keep part himself. He is employing 20 men.

Graft, Murray, & Co. have 1,000,000 feet of lumber at the Rice Point mill yet to cut. There is no probability that the mill will run next year.

DULUTH IN THE EAST. THE CONFIDENCE FELT IN MONEY CENTERS REGARDING THE FUTURE OF THE ZENITH CITY.

Albert N. Seip, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Philadelphia, writes as follows in a private letter to a friend in Duluth:

"In regard to Duluth the impression east is that it is the rising metropolis of the northwest. It is as favorably and well known as any city in the country and it is only a question of time as to what extent you will grow. I notice all the important railroads in the land are seeking connections with Duluth."

"I hope you will succeed in getting a Minnesota Republican interested in Duluth, in President Harrison's cabinet. If you do it will end the silly war on the part of your Wisconsin neighbors, whose senseless objections to Minnesota Point not only injure Duluth but their own growth also. With the rapid revival of business and the satisfaction everywhere manifested with the results of the late national election you can rely on new business developments and continued growth that will add materially to your prosperity. I have been around the financial centers a great deal lately and I must say that everywhere I have been I have found only good wishes for and a firm belief in the future of Duluth."

Cuba's Roads and Fences. But true to the bitter contrasts everywhere noticeable in the island, the road itself was execrable beyond description. They are all alike. Though usually inclosed, as are the American country roads, they are utterly impassable for any manner of vehicles. Indeed, no vehicles are used in Cuba, save in the large cities. In this region, agriculturally the richest portion of the island, the needs of hundreds upon hundreds of great plantations and Trinidad have been met by "packing" on the backs of ponies and mules for over 200 years—and during one-fourth of the time the roads are altogether impassable. Every sack of coffee, every pound of food, every article of furniture, has always been "packed" back and forth in this shillee manner.

The roads crook and turn to avoid obstacles just as the Cuban will do six days' labor to avoid one. "Beware the pantanos" was the warning from every tongue throughout the day. These "pantanos" are swamps in the clay soil where one animal will plunge from perfectly solid footing fairly out of sight. We rescued five animals so mired with their maddened ponies and packs for dour and grateful pilgrims during the day. The "pantanos" were bad enough, but the desecrated literally, refuse, evidences are worse. These are ways cut around impassable places involving careful riding through bogs and jungles, and not infrequently going astray in the dense forests.

The fences of these remarkable "roads" are curious affairs. Frequently they are of a Spanish bayonet and the hempen with a broad leaf and barbed point six inches long, strong enough to impale your horse. Again, strips of stone fence will be seen. Some are of the pina de raton or bastard pineapple tree. But the larger number are of plumes. Green limbs are cut from trees and when thrust in the ground grow instantly and luxuriously. Between the branches the velvety de angelita, a hardy vine, is planted. This weaves itself through and through the bogs in all manner of fantastic and tightening fringes and as it bears a lovely purple blossom, this fence is always strikingly beautiful to the eye.—Cor. Worcester Spy.

A Corinth, Maine, farmer fastened a steel trap to a long pole and tied it in a tree top, so that it stood a little higher than the branches, and at last accounts was three hawks, three owls and one crow the better of it.

A New Fire Detector. An ingenious method of detecting a fire in its incipient stage, whereby better protection is insured against fire in textile mills, warehouses, large public buildings, ships, etc., has been advanced by the fire brigades master at Paisley, England. His system depends from the fact that smoke and consists of an arrangement of perforated pipes, which are led through the interior of buildings or the lower decks of seagoing vessels. These are connected with an ordinary suction and force pump or pumps, either rotary or reciprocating, which, when set in motion, will inhale smoke arising and discharge it at a convenient point available at all times.—Herald Times.

THE CITY.

Real estate transfers yesterday were eight, consideration $7,300.

Jas. W. Norton, will cut four or five million feet of logs this winter.

Most of the tug and small boats in the harbor are laid up for the winter.

McLean & Crawford are already at work on the castings for the Car company.

City saw mills have turned out about 67,000,000 feet of lumber during the past season.

Cargoes of wheat are going out rapidly. Four are out today and one more will load tonight.

A second annual social of the Y. W. C. T. U. is held this evening at the residence of H. H. Hanford.

Messrs. Warner & Grieser will have their new brick building on east Superior street under roof in a day or two.

The Oseilrage will continue her north shore trips until late close of navigation, or until there is no more business by lake.

Some seventy-five laborers left Duluth today for the South where they will work on the government and water power canals.

Contracts will be let tomorrow afternoon for the improvement, both dredging and cribwork of the harbor, of Grand Marais, Michigan.

Mayor Sutphen's big cold storage building on Lake avenue is to be lighted by incandescent electricity by the Duluth Electric Light and Power company.

The Elber Ward is the last boat of the Ward line to arrive this year for the round trip. The Flak may be expected later, but she will lay up here during the winter.

The St. Paul & Duluth road is dismantling the old river line between the junction and Fond-du-Lac and will use it no more. The road expects to sell or lease this line to the Duluth & Winnipeg.

Over 65 miles of road have been opened and improved in this county this year. In this respect, at least, St. Louis county is the banner one of the state. Next year the total will be even greater.

Whatever boats are yet to arrive in Duluth will have to race to arrive before the ice closes the first of December. That date is of particular interest to vessel men as on it all hull insurance expires by limitation.

A special session of the Chess and Whist club will be held tomorrow night to decide on the question of living. The club owes for rent, etc., fully $200, but has more than that amount of back dues coming in.

Messrs. John S. Wolf & Co. expect to complete their first avenue east grading job tomorrow night. They have been favored by remarkably good weather. The street is graded from the St. Paul & Duluth tracks to Thirteenth street.

Captain Inman has a contract with the different dock companies at Superior to keep the harbor open there until the last boats arrive. The exceedingly warm weather of the past few days has, however, melted the ice formed there a few days ago.

The daughter of Charles and Mary Bergeron, aged two years, five months, and sixteen days, died last night at 10 o'clock. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the residence of Hilmy Brown, 346 St. Croix avenue. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

The officers of the Ontario, in port today, say that this is the first pleasant day they have seen since leaving Superior. There has been snow and freezing cold accompanied most of the time by wind. At Port Arthur there is deep snow, and much ice. The Ontario left today on her last trip for the season.

The contract was let yesterday afternoon to J. C. Morrison of this city for the improvement of the harbor at Ontonagon. Four bids were opened at Major Quinn's office. Morrison's bid for the crib work of extending the breakwater amounted to $10,040. The work will be carried on next season. Other bids ranged from $13,250 down.

A sailor who was discharged by Capt. Campau, of the bark Stevens, complained at the custom house that the Stevens sailed part of this trip without a mate, and desired to get even by having the captain hauled over the coals for this violation of the law. As the man was unable to substantiate his charge, Capt. Campau was not at all disturbed.

At municipal court this morning the trial of Eugene and John Fourney for larceny of decorations of the Spaulding house was continued. The court judged that the first of the brothers should be held, and the second discharged. Two boys accused of stealing wood from property near the country were discharged, the evidence showing them to have been in the house. One solitary drunk was committed to the order of the chief of police Billy Hughes of the street crew.

Since the beginning of the year 505,000 gross tons of ore have been shipped from the Iron Range road, 450,000 tons from the Tower mine, and 55,000 from the Chandler. The Chandler mine is not as secure to be the general opinion, run by another company. While it belongs to General Patton and others, it is under a long royalty lease to the Minnesota Iron company.

It is not probable that the new city building on east Superior street will be ready for occupancy before February. All outside work is now completed and the structure is a handsome one. Its design shows what is a fact, that it is intended to be run up several stories more than that it is not so graceful as it otherwise would be. The design is, however, massive and handsome. Its foundation and walls are built with special reference to an eight story building at some future time.

Duluth people will remember the propeller Minnie, which sank on the night of November 3, 1884, and carrying down her crew and several passengers, including one from Minneapolis, to a watery grave. The locality of the wreck has never been known. General Garrison placed it somewhere near the Apostle Islands. Now after four years the remains is proven correct and fragments of her wreckage are coming ashore on the outer islands of the Apostle group. Vessel men think that the recent storms have disturbed the wreck and that she is now lying up. Not a soul of her crew or passengers escaped.

A Family's Fatal Defect.

The Treggars are an influential and cultured family in an inland middle state town. They live in an old mansion, built by their great grandfather, and have all the luxuries of life about them which would be gathered by generations of educated, affluent people. They are possessed of clear heads and warm hearts, and there is apparently no reason why life for them should not be sweet and gracious and full of happiness. They are a father and mother, with a daughter and two sons. When the Treggars gather around the family breakfast table the food is served in a grim silence. If there is a choice morsel on a dish Bob or John is sure to seize it, on which Clara makes some biting allusion to Ciro's banquet for the swine. If Clara comes into the room with a pretty new gown or hat, not one of the family notices it.

When Mr. Treggar takes up the morning paper to read his wife is apt to interrupt him with a dozen questions, upon unimportant subjects, which could easily wait for an hour or two. It never occurs to the boys or to their father to rise when Mrs. Treggar or Clara enters the room, or to hand other of them a chair. Sometimes Mrs. Treggar, who is not a young woman, being reminded of some incident of her youth, of which she has told them before, begins the story again. It is very amusing or touching to her, but in a moment her children glance at each other with suppressed yawns, and her husband usually walks out of the room. She stops short, with tears in her eyes.

Bob is captain of his baseball nine, John is a noted tennis player and Clara is really a fine musician, but nobody at home takes any interest in their little victories, and if one of them speaks of some success, the others hear it with unconcerned indifference, or do not listen at all. Yet the Treggars are fond of each other. When one of them is ill, the others are in an agony of alarm; each of them, when away from home, holds up the others as the standard of excellence, and measures all other people by it.

The fatal defect in their character is lack of courtesy. To strangers abroad or guests in their own home they are polite enough. A visitor may bask them with twice told tales, and they will listen attentively; the choicest bits are placed on his plate, they rise at his entrance, and treat him in every way with deference and careful attention.

But Mr. Treggar says: "I hate the bowing and scraping and fad-de-rol of civility in a family. We know each other, and know that we love each other. What more is wanted?"

The whole family conduct is based on this maxim. The result is incessant grating, rapping, ill humor, and a secret bitterness of soul. Each of the Treggars is lonely at heart, and believes himself or herself unloved.

Great affection and confidence which only come to the light in time of extreme trial are not all that is needed to make home life sunny and happy. We cannot trade on large notes, but on the little coin of precious metal, which passes readily, and makes daily intercourse easy and pleasant. Even in the most loving families there comes to each member days of nervous exhaustion and irritability. It is then that the habit of courtesy learned in childhood helps us to conceal the evil spirit until it has been exorcised and drives away.—Youth's Companion.

Ever since our opening three years ago, we have kept all other Clothing dealers in hot water. The extreme LOW PRICES we have sold Clothing and Furnishing Goods at they have tried time and again to meet our low prices by marking out a few leaders at their doors—"This garment, worth $20, now $15"—and so on, but have failed to catch an intelligent customer.

When a man, woman, boy or child finds out for a certainty that they can buy an Overcoat, Suit of Clothes, Hat, Cap, Furnishing Goods, Underwear, Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, etc., or anything the male sex wears, of a superior quality or make, such as we have always carried for from 25 to 30 per cent cheaper than elsewhere, he is always sure to go to that place; hence the fearful crowds we have been handling right along.

Some say, "Every Clothing House is offering goods cheap." Yes, they pick out a few leaders, placard them at reduced prices "for a bait," but they do not give those bargains on their entire stock like we are doing. We have been the great leaders of lowest prices, but having to dispose of our entire stock within the above time, have knocked the bottom clean out on all prices, and the stock must go regardless of cost.

Come early in the morning and avoid the fearful crowds we have in the afternoon, as we can give you better attention.

A RASH CHALLENGE TO MR. MITCHELL.

San Francisco Pugilist Admires Offer Great Inducements to Dempsey and Mitchell.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 24.—John L. Sullivan has offered to give Charlie Mitchell $1,500 if he will stand up before him eight rounds with gloves, the match to occur within five weeks.

CALIFORNIA SPORTS.

They Want to See a Fight Between Dempsey and Mitchell.

Ontario, Nov. 24.—W. R. Vice, chairman of the committee on boxing in the San Francisco athletic club, passed through the city last evening on his way to New York, where he goes to complete, if possible, arrangements for a meeting between Jack Dempsey and Charlie Mitchell. Mr. Vice is authorized by the club to offer a purse of from $5,000 to $7,000, only stipulating that the fight shall be in the club's rooms, and be a fight.

A RACE BETWEEN SWIFTS.

Two Fast Compositors Will Measure Their Speed in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The printing fraternity of the city has been in a fever of suppressed excitement for a week over the type setting match which takes place tomorrow afternoon between Geo. Monheimer of the Herald and Peter Thilener of the Times. The contest will be of seven hours duration in two stretches of three and one-half hours each. The winner will be paid in a composing room of a newspaper. The stakes are $250 a side and a large amount of money has been wagered on the result. Monheimer is the fastest typewriter in the world. Two weeks ago he set 101,000 ems in six days beating all previous records. Thilener, in the same time, set 108,300 ems in seven days and in being paid for his work drew the largest sum for a single week's work ever paid in a composing room of a newspaper. The amount being $400.82 at the rate of 46 cents per thousand ems. Not much is known of Thilener's speed. He came out fifth in the tournament in Philadelphia some years ago when there were nine contestants in the race. The winner, it is understood, will claim the championship of the world. The match will take place in the Times composing room and only members of the Typographical Union will be admitted.

WAXING HOT.

The English and Irish in Chicago—Finney Roasts the Johnny Bulls.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The feeling between the British-American and the members of the Irish societies growing out of the recent denunciation by the former of the Manchester martyrs memorial meeting continued to increase, and the indications are favorable to a bitter feud between the two nationalities. In today's issue of the Citizen, John F. Finney devotes his leading editorial to a bitter attack upon the English residents of this city. He calls them "hybrid human rubbish" and "without any noble instinct, with gall for blood and mud for brains, and denouncing the Irish as traitors and as members of an English party garrison planted on American soil." He also attacks the members of the Irish societies, and suggests that the killing of Englishmen by Irishmen is a combination of cranks, fools, bigots and liars, but they are powerful against Irish-American patriots.

WHITE CAPS.

They Make a Big Bluff Accompanied by Threats.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The White Caps visited Taylorville, and Mowatville, two small villages near Sardinia Thursday, and posted in conspicuous places notices warning and threatening vengeance to any person or persons who might try to use their energy or influence against them or their order. Things are at white heat in all that part of the country and citizens are almost demoralized.

An Eight Hour Movement.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The new eight hour movement among working men of socialistic propensities, has already begun and meetings are being held in various places throughout the country for the purpose of electing delegates to the convention of the American Federation of Labor to be held at St. Louis next December.

Will Be Hosed Anyway.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The weather is cold and cloudy with light northwest winds blowing across the course selected for the Teemer-O'Connor boat race. Unless the water should be covered in three miles within the above time, the race will be rowed in or on the ice.

No Damages.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 24.—The jury in the Hibbard-Fry breach of promise case came in at 10:30 with a verdict in favor of the defendant.

John Bright Wins.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—John Bright is more this morning. He had a bad night.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Indications for 24 hours: Minnesota fair except in extreme northern portion light snow, southerly winds becoming variable, stationary temperature except in extreme northern portion, colder. For Dakota fair, stationary temperature, southerly winds becoming variable.

The election of officers resulted as follows: J. R. Hicks, Missouri, first vice-president; N. B. McCulloch, Alabama, second vice-president; L. P. Stanley, Alabama, third vice-president; Wm. Kennedy, Pennsylvania, E. P. Fletcher, Illinois, corresponding secretary; A. H. Harry, Illinois, treasurer.

China's First Road.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 24.—The first railway in China was officially opened on the 24th of November. Eighteen miles have been completed from Tientsin to Lata.

A Victory for Farnell.

EDMONTON, Nov. 24.—Judgment was passed by Judge Kinnear in the case of Farnell against the Times allowing proof on the question of arrestment, and from which the Times appealed has been unanimously upheld by the judges of the division of the court of sessions.

The pier work to be done is 1,600 linear feet varying in width from 20 to 24 feet and in height above water from three to six feet. As much of this will be done on 625,000 feet of old plank to be replaced. CHAUNCEY'S DIPLOMACY.

A Threatened Strike of Switchmen to Take Place Saturday.
New York, Nov. 23.—The World says: Information reaches the World from a very authoritative source that switchmen on all trunk lines from the Mississippi to New York have united in a demand upon the roads for an increase of pay and a settlement of other grievances. The matter has been kept in the utmost secrecy by both parties to the controversy but there were earnest consultations in this city last night among officers of the trunk lines. They have been given until Saturday to respond to the requests of the switchmen and after that if there are not granted or compromises cannot be reached a general strike is threatened. It was stated by some high authority last night that it was likely the New York Central system would come to an amicable agreement with its men.

POWDERLY WINS.

Result of the Knights of Labor Election Today.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 23.—The election of officers took up the time of the Knights of Labor general assembly today. Daniel J. Campbell, of Stanton, Pa., nominated T. V. Powderly for re-election. Victor Dewey, of D. A. 40, placed the names of Martin Hanley, of New Jersey, before the convention and an ex-delegate named Birch, from Ohio. A great many seconds to the nominations followed and a vote resulted. Powderly 114; Hanley, 27; Birch, 11. For general worthy foreman, Morris L. Wiest, of Iowa, and Henry A. Beckmeyer, of New Jersey, were nominated. The vote stood—Wiest 55, Beckmeyer 55.

A TOWN BURNS.

A Maryland Town Loses its Business Portion—Loss, Half a Million.
POCONO, N. J., Nov. 23.—The town of Pocono, N. J., broke out here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the drug store of D. O. J. Truitt. This building was situated in the heart of the town, and from the first it was a hopeless case. The entire business portion of the town is gone, and only two stores remain. At 10:30 the fire was all out. The estimated loss is $500,000, partially covered by insurance.

THE ROAD OPENED.

The Winona & Northwestern Formally Opened for Business.
WINONA, Minn., Nov. 23.—The Winona & Northwestern railway was formally opened today by an excursion over the first twenty miles of road, tendered by President William Winona and other officials to about 200 business men and representatives of the press of the state. The road is intended to form a link between Winona and Omaha in a great transcontinental line, including the Lackawanna and Greenway and Winona on the east and upon the Pacific on the west.

Turbulent France.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The Boulanger and Conservative journals charge the government with preparing a coup d'etat to be carried out on the occasion of the demonstration at the grave of the revolutionist, Boudin, on December 2. They alleged that government agents will mingle with the people in the cemetery on that day and provoke a conflict. Leaders in the demonstration will then be arrested on trumped up charges of having been engaged in plotting against the state and will be prosecuted for treason.

Hadst Heard of It.

New York, Nov. 23.—The statement of one of the papers here to the effect that switchmen on trunk lines east of the Mississippi threaten to strike unless their wages are raised, finds no confirmation in railroad office here. No one seems to have heard it, and the opinion expressed is that the report is untrue.

A Celebrated Case.

BEAVER, Pa., Nov. 23.—The evidence in the Hibbard-Fry $100,000 breach promise case, having been concluded last evening, today was devoted to arguments of counsel. The court room was crowded. Adversaries on both sides were able and the speakers were frequently interrupted by applause. The case will go to the jury this evening.

CURE NOTES.
already felt in the flour output, seven mills, representing a daily product of over 10,000 barrels, being idle today. Two of these will be started adding 3,000 barrels to the mills. But there are several others which are on the point of stopping. Although shipments are still being made by lake and rail, this avenue is liable to be closed at any time, and whenever it is a much heavier falling off in the production will result. The mills at St. Louis, Milwaukee and LaCrosse, as well as those located at two prominent points in Minnesota, Dakota and Michigan, have practically agreed upon the plan to reduce the flour output one-half for a number of weeks to come.

MILBURN BUNNELL, Manager.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF DULUTH.

If this weather continues much longer the St. Paul ice palace will not materialize on schedule time.

The Mills bill is not attracting so much attention as it did. It seems to have gone into the winter of Texas.

Although winter is near at hand new cases of yellow fever are daily reported from the fever stricken districts of the south.

The papers of Minnesota and St. Paul are so unanimously in favor of W. D. Washburn for the United States senate that little else needs explication.

Lord Saville West sails for England today. He has the satisfaction of knowing that he leaves Washington, President Cleveland will not linger long behind him.

The condition of Samuel Jackson Randall is so far improved that it is now believed he will be able to be in his seat at the reassembling of congress clothed in a smile of satisfaction.

All the Presidents elected by Republicans since Abraham Lincoln have been born in Ohio. The list is Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Harrison. President Arthur was, of course, elected as Vice-President.

The public debt of the United States averages $15 per capita, and the state debt amounts to $10 more, or a total of $25 per capita of population. The average in Europe is $100 and increasing, while ours is diminishing.

The owner of a Brooklyn street railway line has issued a proclamation to the effect that he will not employ any more men as drivers or conductors who are not American born or naturalized citizens. He evidently belongs to the American party.

The News is not favorable to Frank Burke's candidacy for a position on the Minnesota railway and warehouse commission. "As it does not say who its candidate for the position is, it is assumed that it will use its influence for Burke's opponent, R. C. Mitchell.

The Republicans in Virginia believe that they cast enough ballots to give that state to the Republicans if they had been fairly counted. They have, consequently, after mature deliberation, decided to carry the matter into the courts and an interesting legal contest will be the result.

Many ways have been hit upon by the solicitors of Grover Cleveland's welfare for disposing of that gentleman in future. He has been placed at the head of a big financial syndicate, made president of a railroad, sent to Europe, and last but not least he has been offered a position in Buffalo, and will enter it with his old law partner Bissell, and resume practice.

Young Mr. Stearnson, of Crookston, is reported as a senatorial possibility. He is the gentleman who, after securing his election to the Chicago convention through the influence of G. G. Hartley of this city, frothed at the mouth because Mr. Hartley chose to vote for a candidate for president whom Mr. Stearnson did not like. The Crookston statesman's senatorial prospects are not bright.

A good many of Knute Nelson's old political friends will not let him retire from politics pensively as he desires to do and are constantly bringing up his name in connection with the senatorship. Mr. Nelson is not in the race. D. M. Sabin and W. D. Washburn are the principal candidates, with a host of minor aspirants, and Knute would not be numbered among them if he was in the field.

Newspaper reporters have found it difficult to interview Gen. Harrison and when an alleged interview is published it can generally be put down as the product of the imagination of an enterprising reporter. He was recently quoted as saying that he was in favor of the annexation of Canada and would spend the surplus to attain that end. Of course, the president elect denies that he ever had any such interview.

John Harris, aged seventy years, of Pendleton county, Kentucky, has been a life-long Republican. He was greatly excited during the recent election, and last Saturday his enthusiastic neighbors, knowing the old gentleman's ardor, determined to serenade him during their jollification exercises. The drum corps and a host of friends visited the residence of Mr. Harris, a tune or two was played, the crowd sang "My Country 'tis of Thee," and when they finished the old man raised his hand, yelled for Harrison, and fell forward dead of heart disease. A sad ending of joyful news.

It is rumored that within a few days the unscrupulous coal ring will order the temporary closing of the mines along the Monongahela river, in order to restrict production and force a raise in the price of coal, resulting in turning 6,000 workmen and families dependent upon them out of employment which is never paid well enough to enable them to live decently and save anything for sickness or a rainy day. We all know that coal is already exorbitantly high considering the cost of mining, and the stoppage of work to force it higher is an outrage upon the people, and the present congress, when it convenes next month can do nothing that will give it so much credit as to devise a law to destroy this trust against the necessities of the people. The owners of mines, the operators and the railways in that section, have arranged a pool or trust beside which highway robbery is honorable. It is against public policy, and we call upon congress to crush this monster that has its grip on the freights of the land.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE DANCER OF THE ROBINET.

Good as the Boston Ideals are, and crowded as the ensemble of the company is with first class artists, they have not yet come up as popular amusement makers, to their prototypes the Bostonians. Between these two companies has naturally been intense rivalry ever since manager Foster and the best part of Minnie's old Bostonian company, also lived in partnership, and while the Bostonians have no equal as dancers, De Lussan is no such actor as De Lussan the more popular and pleasing organization of the two. This was evinced by last night's performance, although that play is one which the Boston Ideals appear at their best. It is plainly apparent that a good manager makes a good company. De Lussan is the last actress on the American stage, and last night in playing the title role she drew out the applause as it has seldom been evoked in Duluth. Her singing, too, is most excellent and she is much better advantage than ever before. Last night she was superbly supported by Messrs. Clark, Baxter and Bainbridge while Miss Claire made another hit.

Last night's audience was slightly larger than that of the previous evening and filled the house about to the doors. Tonight the Duluth engagement of the company and from here they go to the Twin Cities for a week's stand at each.

Manager Barnett after a great deal of difficulty has secured a very strong attraction for his theatre in Emile Rosta Soler's Royal Consolidation. This company includes the original Vienna lady fencers, who created such a sensation some time ago when they appeared at Koste & Bial's in New York. In addition to their great exhibition of scientific fencing, they will also give a very attractive boxing scene. Included in the company will also be the great trio, Simmons, Hughes and Kautus, the latter being known as the champion wing dancer. Besides these are Young Dempsey and Jack Campbell, California's sensational boxers and sketch artists, who will give a rattling three round contest each evening. The company will be under the management of the eminent German comedian, Mr. Gus Warten, who dances with the Hults shoes weighing one pound each. Next week at the People's will be seen the greatest show ever produced in the house, and crowded houses will certainly be the reward of the manager's enterprise.

RATHER TOO INTIMATE.
AN UNCLE ARRESTED CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL INTIMACY WITH HIS NEPHEW'S SPOUSE.
A warrant was served late yesterday at the residence of Lynna Linnell of this city. Chas. H. Linnell being the complainant and the complaint charging Linnell No. 1 with criminal intimacy with the loving spouse of Linnell No. 2, who is a nephew of No. 1. The allegations of the case are that Mrs. Linnell, the woman in the case, came down from her home at Tower on November 6, and on arrival here was taken by the uncle to his hotel, the Bay View, where she presumably spent the night, departing for her husband and tower the next day. The complaint charges the elder Linnell with having committed rape on her during the night.

There was apparently no disturbance at the Bay View that night, so screams of a lone woman were heard, even by boarders in adjoining rooms, and the value of the hotel are so thin that other sounds were easily heard. There was, so say those who ought to know, a willing entrance into Linnell's room and a friendly parting the next day. Circumstances point rather suspiciously to attempted blackmail, and this will be the defense of the accused at the trial Monday.

For Which the Ladies are Working Hard—Society People for the Week.

The postess who wrote of the Red Man's summer as preferable to the season when the rose hangs out her crimson banner to the sun was alluding to just such weather as all Duluth has enjoyed and her new residents excluded at in wondering surprise during the past weeks. No time of year so conducive to thorough health and enjoyment, and at the same time the pleasant crisp weather so gradually received. There has been less than enough in Duluth for the most delicate skinned and the most delicate skinned of the northern latitude, almost as good as no weather, have been enjoyed by many a party. A lack of cold and the total absence of snow has somewhat hindered the usual early winter festivities, and preparations for the turkey and mince pie of next week have been a time made the thought of entertainment of other character. Of course the leading social event of the coming week is the charity ball. It could not come at a more appropriate time. The cold northern breeze, bringing a new and refreshing distillation to the city's air, will soon be upon us and the ladies will gain by this ball the needed stimulation with which to battle with misery and want. As yet the sale of tickets has not been as large as was looked for, but a renewed effort is being made today and the managers are not now as discouraged as they feared to be. This ball is not gotten up entirely for the pleasure of those attending, its scope is higher and wider than that, and the promoters of the enterprise feel that they should have no trouble in disposing of all the tickets they will sell.

Diamond Lake, O. P. held a large and nicely planned reception last night at their new castle hall in the Allen block on the West End. A large number of invitations were issued, and very many of them were accepted, and it was a brilliant affair. The reception committee consisted of H. P. Brown, R. J. Scott, T. A. Pinto, S. A. Sivert and T. O. Hall, while the arrangements committee consisted of the following: C. A. Nichols, C. J. Thompson and J. H. Davis. The same organization dedicated its hall early in the week with appropriate and pleasing ceremonies. Several hundred guests were present, among them many guests from other localities and the state officers of the order.

State Senator Whitman returned this week from the east.

The Sewa society gave a pleasant ball in the Cleveland block Thursday night.

Mrs. W. H. Holmes is in Minneapolis in attendance at the sick bed of her father.

Manager Church, of the Imperial Mills, is still confined to his bed and is very ill.

Mrs. E. H. Fish, her mother Mrs. Hill and Miss L. Darnes left this week for Wichita, Kansas, where they will spend the winter.

Miss Estes has returned from Two Harbors and Stoulls, in each of which places she succeeded in organizing large societies of the Y. W. C. T. U. She goes to Cloquet and Thompson tonight.

Major Cole, accompanied by his wife and daughter, left for Duluth this morning. The evangelist and his helpers have done Duluth much good in a spiritual way and they carry with them the best wishes of a number of our people.

Rev. C. C. Salter left last night for St. Louis, called there by the death of his son, a serious illness of his brother. The ladies of the church are busy getting up a surprise for Mr. Salter.

Tuesday evening the sophomore class of the Duluth high school gave a pleasant entertainment to which many guests were invited. The following was the program:

Plano solo.....E. A. Silfversten
Recitation.....Miss Zilla Eaton
Extemporaneous speech.....Ward Ames
Plano solo.....Miss Charlotte McLaren
Original poem.....Miss John White
Recitation.....Miss John White
Song.....Miss John White

H. H. Hanford is visiting his parents at Norwalk, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Fergusson are in New York and will remain until spring.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bacon, of Tower, have been in the city for some days.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLachlan are visiting Mr. McLachlan's parents at Fort Wayne.

Mr. House greeted his wife and daughter last Thursday. They have been visiting at LeBour.

Two members of the Duluth Y. M. C. A. spent a couple of days this week at St. Cloud, attending the annual convention.

Rev. E. M. Nygren speaks Monday evening at the Congregational church of Minnesota, St. Paul on the Christian Endeavor movement.

A church social was given last night by the Park place church to the pastor. Among those present were a number of members of the uptown Methodist church.

The Y's held their second annual reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hanford last night. The handsome house was filled with guests and a most pleasant evening was spent by all present. Nearly 100 young people were present.

The Chess and Whist club will meet tonight to decide on the question of continuing life or an immediate dissolution, and it is very important that all members should be present. The debts of the club aggregate about $200 and are fully covered by dues payable, but so far uncollectable. Interest in chess has apparently waned considerably since the formation of the club. Every member is liable for the whole amount of the debts, therefore the meeting ought to be attended by every member.

Buy tickets to the Charity Ball and give the ladies a rousing benefit Tuesday evening at Hotel St. Louis.

The Tuesday art club held its regular session at Miss D'Unger's studio, during the week-subject, Greek history and art. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bayly entertained most delightfully about twenty couples with progressive euchre on Wednesday evening last.

On the arrival of the pipe organ of the new Congregational church a fine organ concert will be given.

Arrangements are being made for a grand dance to be given by the members of the Windsor hotel the night of December 6.

The Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners will hold their annual ball at Turner hall on Thanksgiving evening, 24th inst.

The Old club will give the second of its series of pleasant parties Friday evening. It is understood that this is not to be a full dress affair.

The Ladies Literature class meets at the Hotel St. Louis on Tuesday afternoon. The work in consideration will be the novel, "The Eldest," by Richardson, Fielding, Stearns and Society.

Arrangements have been made for the appearance here next Friday evening of the "Chinese Village," a pictorial and graphical representation of Chinese life and manners. The entertainment is for the benefit of one of the societies of the Presbyterian church and will be held in the parish hall of the church.

The usual Thanksgiving dinner and entertainment will be given at the Young Men's hall Thursday afternoon and evening next. These yearly accents for the benefit of the homeless young men of the city have become a valuable feature in the work of the association.

Mrs. Hoffman, who is to speak at the Opera house Monday evening, is dressed by those who have heard her as fully the ideal of a woman as a speaker. Her language is clear, her manner good, and her power over an audience complete.

There will be no admission fee charged Monday evening and the belief of the temperance society here and expect a large audience. The speaker will certainly be worth hearing.

A LIFE SAVED.

John Anderson, a Native of Sweden,
Escapes Death.

Mr. John Anderson, whose portrait is shown here, relates a peculiar tale of suffering. He says that he has been in this country a little over a year and in that time has passed through several stages of disease.

Last November he had typhoid fever from which he slowly recovered, and in February started work with Hamilton, the contractor and builder, but was unable to work but two weeks and had been getting worse ever since. He was troubled greatly with diarrhoea and cramps and pains in the stomach. When arising in the morning to clear his throat and head, and after eating anything he would find the stomach apparently filling with gas and the distress was so great he could hardly get about. He had a dull pain through the forehead, and there was noise in his ears like a ring or ringing sound.

Since stopping work he has doctored until at last his physicians told him they could do no more for him, as he was suffering with diabetes, and his case was hopeless. So in a very disappointed frame of mind he went to see Dr. Cosman, at No. 36 Fourth avenue west.

J. ANDERSON.

"Well, did he do anything for you?" "Well, I should say he did. I cannot tell you very good English yet, so had to get one of my friends to go to the doctor's office with me. After a careful examination of my case, the doctor told me that my trouble was due in the main to catarrh of the stomach, and that he thought I could be relieved. So I started treatment with him, and I have improved so much that I am working every day now. I feel like another man, my appetite gets first-class, I can eat and have none of the distressing symptoms that follow it. My head is clear and the headache and ringing in my ears have disappeared and I feel that I have as good a chance for living as any person and this is all due to the excellent skill and treatment of Dr. Cosman and most heartily will I recommend any person suffering as I to go and see the doctor."

Dr. Anderson can be found at No. 123 West Third street, where he or any of his friends will cheerfully corroborate the above statement.

Warding Off Invalidism. It is no wonder that so many women are turned out on a mild Tartar fashion, physically, they are capable of such ignorant neglect. "There is no creature so systematically abused as woman from the cradle to the grave," a clever doctor once surprised me by saying, and he went on to particularize their neglect of needful clothing. In his wide practice in an old, wealthy country town, he said two-thirds of the women and girls went with lower limbs so thinly clad in wintry weather as to bring on the direst neuritic disorders and obstructions. The girl of forty years ago danced till heated, went home in slippers, and died beautifully rosy in the wild tell of barn that will sometime under an owl's death seen desirable in contrast. As the cool season comes on let every woman who would preserve such good looks as nature give her, and ward off the invalidism which is worse than age, provide herself with a sensible outfit. The liner the fabric and cover the fit next the skin the better. The finest web of wool or silk she can afford should be added to the person, from neck to mid-thigh, and jersey fashion, for the difficulty of putting off and on hinders one from changing daily and nightly. The vest should button its entire length, with wide underlay, that no air may find its way between the buttons to the skin over the lungs. This suit may be very fine if of the right materials. Feather dannel, woven from the down of birds, is like gauze, but warmer than heavy merino. I don't know where it is to be had at present—Shirley Dare's Letter.

CURE OF CANCER and ULCERS.

Judge T. C. McLenahan writes to the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga., under date of February 14, 1888: "About three years ago, Jerry Bradley, a colored man, had a cancerous sore on his face, near the right eye. It caused him a great deal of pain, and he lost the sight of the eye, but was finally cured of the cancer by the use of Swift's Specific. This case is well known in Wilkes Co., Ga., where he lived (near Danbury), and of this case, I myself, had personal knowledge."

Mr. L. Cox, of Asheville, N. C., writes, February 21, 1888: "I suffered a great deal from old ulcers for six years. Your medicine was recommended to me, and after using six bottles, I was completely cured. I never saw it equal as a Blood Purifier. My neighbors will use no other. Your medicine does even more than you claim for it. I have known it to cure cases which were thought to be hopeless. It is the best medicine made."

Mr. A. M. Goldsmith, No. 671 Warren St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes, February 22, 1888: "I contracted being S. S. S. about ten years ago. I had suffered with a sore throat for over a year, and I was unable to use my voice. I used a great many other remedies with no good result. My wife and I had a great deal of trouble over it, and when I contracted being S. S. S. I thought I would say that I knew of for the blood. I really believe it was the means of saving my life. The doctor told me I had a throat disease similar to General Grant's. I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from throat disease. I use it now as a tonic when I feel weak."

Mr. R. F. George, Milford P. O., N. H., writes, February 22, 1888: "I had a cancerous wart on my eye, as large as the end of my thumb, which had the appearance of cancer, causing me much pain and inflammation, and this wart had been a long time. After taking the S. S. S. I advertised I commenced using it, and the wart came off in seven days. I was dropped out, my cancer was gone, and I was cured. I feel like another man."

After taking the S. S. S. I advertised I commenced using it, and the wart came off in seven days. I was dropped out, my cancer was gone, and I was cured. I feel like another man."

THE CITY.

An early change toward cold weather is predicted.

The district messenger bay service will be in operation in a few days.

The regular meeting of the local post O. A. R. will be held tonight.

Large quantities of provisions of all kinds are being sent to the lumber woods daily.

The matinee of Faust given by the Idealists this afternoon is before a crowded house.

Bertha Larsen was yesterday afternoon taken to the St. Peter's asylum for the insane.

Duncan, Brewer & Co.'s dozen dwellings at West Duluth are nearly ready for occupancy.

Twenty-two realty transfers were filed yesterday, with a total consideration of $97,007.

Next year will see a building boom in the structures west of Sixth avenue on Superior street.

The heavy iron columns for the first story of the Pastore-Stenson building are all in position today.

The Iron Range road has given a contract for 20,000 cross ties, about enough to lay eight miles of track.

Levine Bros. will build a branch clothing store at Tower, a two story building to cost five or six thousand dollars.

The city of Fremont has finished the work of laying the boat up for the winter and the crew has been discharged.

It is said that carpenters have offered to place the Howard house in as good condition as it was before the fire for $300.

The shipping season closes with 43,000 tons of iron ore on stock piles at the Tower mines. This gives a good start for the winter increase.

The Turkey begins to make his appearance in the markets, a reminder of Thanksgiving more certain than the president's proclamation.

One leading real estate firm has sent in bids to the government for nearly all corners on First street that are available for a public building.

The Northern Pacific road is sending west a vast amount of freight, a considerable portion of it being bonded merchandise for Winnipeg.

Bids for the site of a government building will be opened Monday by the supervising architect of the treasury. It is not probable that Duluth will know of his decision until given out by the treasury department at Washington.

On and after Monday the Short line trains of the Iron Range will run only as far as the Union depot connecting there with the West End train of the St. Paul & Duluth. More trains will be run and better service given.

Our public spirited citizens are anticipating with great pleasure Mrs. Hoffman's address at the Opera house next Monday evening. Mrs. Hoffman is a speaker of national reputation and attracts large audiences wherever she goes.

It now transpires that Pat Kilian's excuse for backing out of his match with Dominick McElroy was manufactured out of whole cloth. Kilian was evidently weak, and is attempting to shoulder the responsibility onto some one else.

The Iron Range manufacturing company of Marquette, is now turning out some steel boilers and dredge machinery for the Michigan & Co. the big Duluth dredging firm. This will be shipped to Duluth via the South Shore road as soon as possible.

Bethel, C. C. Satter pastor, Lent a hand, 10:30 a. m., Sunday school, 3 p. m.; prayer meeting, 7:30 p. m. There will be a large address from Capt. Miller, Page Morris and others, with special music. Song service conducted by Mr. D. McLeod this evening at 7:30 p. m.

Charlie Weber has got nicely settled in his new quarters in the brick building on Michigan street, between First and Second avenue west. He occupies three stories and basement of the building, and will engage in the manufacture of confectionery more extensively than ever.

The schooner Richard Winslow coming up the lake light in tow of the Egyptian, had her boiler and stern part injured in a gale. She is being repaired here, and cannot receive sufficient repair to allow her to get away this fall. She will therefore lay up here and is now being stripped.

At the municipal court, last night Anton Erickson, charged with resisting an officer, was discharged because of a technicality in the complaint. He skipped to Superior, but thought better of the matter and came back. This morning he was arrested again, and, before the judge, his trial was set for the 30th. Three drunks were disposed of this morning in the usual way.

The electric light committee of the city council is now on its journey of investigation. The members of the committee will visit St. Paul, Chicago, and other cities where both the United States and Thomson-Louston systems have been or are at present operated. They will ask for nothing but impartial testimony and may be expected to find out the truth regarding light.

Bank clearings for the week ending yesterday were $2,049,773.12, a total less than that of the same week last year, but showing a gratifying increase in the amount of checks in general business. The small receipts of wheat this fall are having their effect on the banks, and make that branch of banking business very small.

The general trade of the city shows, however, an increase of clearings of nearly 50 per cent over a year ago.

An interesting race with the weather is now being carried on by the contractor of the Imperial mill. He has been most fortunate in good working weather but was delayed in getting his brick work started and is now rushing to get up as much wall as possible before cold weather puts a stop to operations in the building line. He now has the heavy walls up nearly to the fifth floor, and is today turning the arches of the fourth story windows. The fifth and sixth stories are due to be built, and the upper one is to be the height of the others.

CITY NIGHT TOILERS.

A

INCREASING.

Who and how many are there of those who turn night into day—who labor from sunset to sunrise and sleep while the great masses are toiling? Quite respectable in numbers when all are taken into account, and their ranks are daily increasing as new industries spring up or certain lines of business prosper and demand more help for their development.

In the lead in numbers are the newspaper workers—printers, editors, pressmen, reporters, mailing clerks, stereotypers, proof readers and other branches of the occupation. The five morning newspapers of Chicago employ well up in the neighborhood of 300 persons each in their various departments, so that here is in round numbers a thousand men and boys—for the softer sex has fortunately kept comparatively clear of night work, and thoughtfulness of women find employment in various ways at printing. It is rare indeed that one can be found connected with the morning newspaper—at least in such a way that the burning of the midnight oil is demanded. In many cases, too, there is not demand of the man who keeps his living on any of the papers strict night work. The afternoons and evenings are taken up by editors and reporters, but long before midnight the majority have completed their labors. Still there is remaining by far the greater proportion of the employees who are on duty into the early morning hours. The most numerous of these are, of course, the printers.

The printer's ways.

Old people are some of these printers, and full of fancies, but as a rule sober, quiet, decent members of society. The time has gone by when to be a printer it was also necessary to be thoroughly familiar with the various brands of liquor at all night saloons or to put in the day at the poker table after a night at the "cave." The "bun" printer has no place in Chicago offices today. There has been a revolution, and without any cry of a temperance reform has swept away much of the old times as had not cumulated to earlier excesses, and it is so well recognized that sobriety is essential to securing and holding situations that few nowadays venture to overstep the bounds. But, as stated, there are old characters here and there among them. Superstitious in a degree are some. Their dreams are full of meaning, and they pin their faith so firmly to these visions of sleep that many a dollar has gone to the policy or lottery shop on the strength of certain numbers that had passed through their minds in the night.

"Speculation" is a ruling passion with some, and, while there is little fascination in cards or dice, the printers' own game, known as "Jeffing" and which is hardly not to be explained to the outside world, has in times past had its adherents by hundreds, and though now labeled in all well regulated offices is still talked of gingerly and lovingly by its former devotees.

Next to the printers the bakers form perhaps the most numerous class of all night workers. There in Chicago about 700 of those who are employed in the night time. Picturesque figures they make, too, covered with flour, white aprons and white caps, and with a look about them—despite their late hours of labor—which speaks well for the healthful nature of their calling and their regular habits out of service. It is a strange fact that there has been a revolution in the ways of the bakers as well as the following of other occupations, and that the moral standard has been elevated in recent years. The men are sober, industrious and, as a rule, saying they look after the welfare of one another in sickness, and have an insurance system and burial fund, which furnish relief for widows and orphans. Their hours are somewhat lengthy, but are in reality much shorter than demanded of day workers, while the pay is better. In fact, it might be stated here that the average "day" of all night workers does not exceed eight hours, and that the compensation is more than proportionately increased.

THE TELEGRAPH OPERATOR.

At the Western Union and postal telegraph offices there are large forces employed at night in both instances. Taking advantage of the half rate thousands of dollars' worth of business pours over the counters after 6 o'clock in the evening. The great volume of dispatches handled for the morning newspapers, too, require many intelligent and fast operators. There are about 250 night operators in Chicago. The majority are young men, but some of the gray haired veterans whose years of service at the key ought to demand their retirement on a pension roll—something not yet established by the way. There is a fascination in pounding the key or transcribing his clackings to paper when the world is sleeping that exerts so potent an influence that these veterans cannot break away from it. "I have tried day jobs half a dozen times," said one, "but I couldn't accustom myself to the increased quiet and rattle and activity, so I always drifted back to the old way. I have grown up in that way. I was a night messenger boy in New York years ago, and have held down night sits almost continuously since that time, so that it isn't to be wondered at that I love the darkness, and not because my deeds are evil, either."

The hours of the night telegrapher are short. Seven and a half hours' labor winds through, and all work after that is paid for at an extra rate.

The "cabbies" are also a numerous class. There are a hundred or more who have stunts scattered around over the city. Strange stories they could tell—romances, stories of wild revelry, tales of crime—were they not close mouthed and clamish to a remarkable extent. "Dull times now," said one. "The closing of the saloons and gambling houses has cut down trade, and things are not lively like they used to be."

In most of the restaurants a force is kept busy until midnight or 1 o'clock in the morning. But these workers scarcely come under the head of the toilers with which this article treats.

Then there is the small army of policemen and a still greater army of watchmen—Pickerton men, the Veterans patrol, the private employees of the big downtown firms and in the residence districts; the carriers who serve the papers at breakfast to thousands, and who report for duty at 3 a. m.; the drug clerks, some of whom sleep with one eye open, others remaining at their posts all night; the street sweepers, the car drivers and conductors, the messenger boys, the hotel clerks—even an all night barber. Other occupations could be mentioned, but their following is small.—Chicago Tribune.
